

WEEK 30: LEADERSHIP DISCUSSION GUIDE

1. What has been your experience with leaders or leadership? Do you see yourself as a leader?
2. What were some of the lessons you have learned about leadership from the perspective of both following and leading?
3. What is the best experience you have of serving, whether through the church, an organization, or on your own initiative? What was the impact of those involved and on you?
4. Read John 12:1-8 and John 13:1-14. How does the woman in chapter 12 mirror Jesus in chapter 13? What lessons can we learn from these stories?
5. Read Luke 12:37. What does this mean for us? How should this affect our daily lives?
6. In the Bible: "Those who present themselves as rulers are ruled by their desire to be seen as rulers." How do you see this playing out today in politics, athletics, and business?
7. All of us have power in one realm or another. Share with the group what power or authority you have. Then brainstorm together how that power could be used for the powerless you serve.
8. Let's bring this lesson home, literally. Share with the group one thing you will start doing to serve at least one person in your home, family, or friend group.

ACTION STEPS

Have you identified and served someone this week? Share your experience. If not, who do you plan to serve and how?
