1. Ruth 4 opens with the connecting word, "meanwhile..." While Ruth and Naomi are eating breakfast Boaz gets to work on what he promised to do. What one thing do you need to get done this week that God is asking you to do?
2. The entire crowd blessed/prayed for Boaz after he redeemed Ruth. They speak words of encouragement, hope, and blessing on him. Do you speak more blessing or curses in your daily life? Who do you need to speak words of affirmation to this week?
3. Read Ruth 4:18-22 and Matthew 1:1-17. What sticks out to you in the lineage? What do you see that enhances the deep love of God for all people?
4. What lessons can guys learn from Boaz which could be applied to modern day relationships?
5. Are there any important principles about communication found here?
6. As we close the page on the Old Testament book of Ruth share what has been the most meaningful part of the sermon series, Bible study, or what God has taught you through these last four – five weeks about His wild love.
