"From More Guilt to More Love "

1. Read Ephesians 3. Like the previous lesson, pretend you've never experienced church and that what you read in Ephesians 3 is your first and only exposure to the characteristics of church. What conclusions or assumptions would you make about church?
2. What can happen when our motives for mobilization are rooted in anything other than love?
3. Make a list of the different possible motives you have when recruiting volunteers. What causes you to have motives other than love?
4. Discuss the differences between primary or general calling and secondary or unique personal calling as described above. Why is it vitally important to distinguish the two callings? What happens when people focus on secondary or unique calling without understanding that our unique or secondary calling is given to support our primary calling?
5. How does love bind primary and secondary calling together? What could happen when other motives drive our pursuit of calling? What are some examples of improper motives by the church in mobilizing people?
6. What challenged and confronted you the most?
7. What encouraged and comforted you the most?
8. What tensions are you feeling? Why?
